FINTECH SELECT FILES PROVISIONAL PATENT APPLICATION FOR SWIPECARD CRYPTOCURRENCY ACCESSIBILITY

For Immediate Release

Toronto, ON, November 21, 2017 – Fintech Select Ltd. (“Fintech Select” or the “Company”) (TSX-V: FTEC) is pleased to announce that it has filed a patent application for its propriety POS (Point-of-Sale) Cryptocurrency platform.

The company believes that its POS Cryptocurrency exchange platform carries competitive advantages when compared to Bitcoin ATM's and regular online exchanges and thus has taken action to protect its proprietary process in the marketplace. Unlike other platforms that can only print vouchers or use high fees to transact through ATM's the Company's Selectcoin platform interconnects a merchants POS system with an exclusive closed loop card and digital wallet in a seamless eco-system.

Fintech Select will be updating the market shortly on the official soft launch of the Selectcoin platform and the active locations for the launch phase.

“We are thrilled with the execution of the entire team during this pivotal time for the company and truly believe that the patent filing will create a long-term revenue stream and return value to shareholders while simultaneously highlighting and strengthening our market leading offering” states Mohammad Abuleil, CEO and President.
